MUSIC

Qi energy healing which can bring serenity and calm to the mind and love and harmony to the heart, at the press of a button, sounds too good to be true. Clearing pain and anger, both physical and mental seems equally impossible. Yet it is not only those engaged in alternative healing who use and heap praise on Jack Lim's beautiful music, testimonials flow in also from medical professionals who regularly listen to his music meditations.

In November last year, Jack Lim was honoured by a special award from the International Qigong Science Association at the 5th International Conference of Qigong in Bangkok. Jack Lim's Qi Energy Music has enabled so many people around the world to experience and understand the power of Qi. The award recognizes his contribution to the development and promotion of Qigong throughout the world.

This amazing development in Qigong healing is the result of Jack's endless search for better ways to help people overcome stress and illness. Compassion is a powerful force that has driven Jack Lim to boldly experiment and blaze a new path. Jack believes he is carrying out the wishes of the Universe, and that the Universe supports him in his endeavours to spread healing Qi.

Jack was born in Australia and was sent back to China by his parents to study Chinese culture at the age of fourteen. 30 years later he returned to become a bridge between the East and West. In bringing Qigong and Qi healing to Australia and spreading Qi healing through Qi Energy music, Jack Lim believes that he has been fulfilling his destiny

It was 25 years ago, when only half awake on a Sunday morning, Jack began to hear beautiful music streaming into his consciousness. This music he knew was to be preserved, recorded and spread around the world. He rose and started to play and record the music. As he played he could see in his mind's eye people around the world holding hands and dancing, brothers and sisters together. The feeling of love and harmony brought tears to his eyes. The music he recorded was entitled, "Inner Peace"

This music along with other pieces came to Jack in the same fashion, for different healing purposes, all connected with inner consciousness. Knowing that strengthening the kidney energy is an effective solution to depression, he recorded music that carried a flow of powerful Qi to the kidneys, to uplift the spirit and imbue confidence.

Jack is pleased to see that many more people are aware of help being at hand, so that much of the suffering that people now go through need not be endured. To enable people to experience what may be possible through Qi energy music, Jack has recently made a sampler with snippets of each of his 10 CD's which is now available free. ■
